* The Administrator need not be an attorney or member of the Inn. If the Inn is affiliated with a law school or a bar association, the administrator may be someone on the staff of the law school or the bar association. In some cases, the local Inn pays the person. The result is a more efficient operation that frees the Masters of the Bench from the minutiae of administering the Inn to concentrate on fulfilling the Inn's mission.

 When the administrative duties of the Secretary/Treasurer pass yearly from person to person, records can be lost and succeeding officers may not be able to follow previous procedures. For this reason, a permanent administrator has been found to be a great value.
